Serving the Northland for 25 years. We are the longest running professional martial arts instruction in the area; we teach character development through martial arts, personal defense, leadership training in a family environment with plenty of fitness and fun in our group or private sessions. We are a proud member of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and the Better Business Bureau with an A+ credit rating and our programs and pricing are without equal. Walk-ins are always welcome, or you can email us: info@kckarate.com to meet our team and discuss your goals. All new students will be taught how to safely break-a-board and you'll receive your free gift at the completion of your first private lesson. Join our community and see for yourself why parents choose us for their children and why teens and adults love us and continue training for years to become the next generation of instructors. Located at: 6246 N Chatham Ave Kansas City MO 64151.

Students sign up for classes by roster-based assignments, this accommodates all suggested protocols during the coronavirus period. For our safety and yours, all students and instructors wear masks and we clean the studio after each class. At this time, we are not offering parent or guest seating but you can sign up for a time to come in and observe students during Belt Promotion Exams, which are held quarterly.
